EIGHTH FATALITY RECORDED

Mrs. Mary Dziadosz of New Kensington was killed and four others were injured when these cars collided on Rt. 62 south of Warren. The mishap occurred when the car in the foreground skidded sideways into the path of the car in which the woman was a passenger (upper left). A third car, northbound on the highway, crashed into the Dziadosz vehicle also. The accident was the second fatal crash in the county within a week. (Photo by Mahan)

DeGaulle Offers Solution to Nation's Woes

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle offered Frenchmen Friday night a "third solution" to the country's grave social problems, a course that would in his view avoid the "moral and material constraint" of Communism and the "alienation" of the capitalist system.

De Gaulle appealed for massive public support of his proposals for the June 23-30 elections and said everything depends on the voting results, "the republic, liberty, progress, independence and peace."

"If the election—results are bad, all is lost," the 77-year-old president said in a radio-television interview with Michel Drot, editor of the pro-Gaullist Figaro Littéraire.

The broadcast to the nation was De Gaulle's third in the month-long crisis that developed from riotous demonstrations by students demanding educational reforms into a general strike that paralyzed French industries and affected agriculture.

As De Gaulle spoke, millions of workers were back at work or preparing to return to their jobs under terms of a substantial wage settlement that had all but ended the strike. But violent signs of dissatisfaction persisted.

Workers at the Renault automobile plant in Flins, who have rejected the settlement, battled police all day for possession of the factory. War veterans and students fought in the streets in Brittany and revolutionary students paraded in Paris.

De Gaulle appeared relaxed and confident during the 57-minute interview, which was taped in advance.

The president discussed three possible choices in what he called France's terrible and gigantic crisis: Communism, capitalism and his third solution.

Communism, he said, amounts to "a dictatorship that is implacable and perpetual."

Woman Killed In Auto Crash

A New Kensington woman was killed and her husband and two children were seriously injured in a three-car crash Friday afternoon on Rt. 62 about six miles south of the Rt. 6 intersection. The driver of a second car was also injured.

Dead is Mrs. Mary F. Dziadosz, 41, 2753 Valley View dr., New Kensington. Her death marked the eighth highway fatality in the county this year and the second within a week.

Mrs. Dziadosz's son, Gary, 8, was listed in serious condition at Warren General Hospital with multiple head injuries. Her husband, Henry, 45, and daughter, Susan, 10 were in satisfactory condition at the hospital.

Salvatore P. Cipriani, 25, 1 W. Third ave., Warren, suffering multiple fractures and a possible concussion. His condition was said to be critical.

Cipriani was driving south on the highway, investigating trooper Daniel Portzer said, when he lost control of his car. The vehicle crossed into the northbound lane where it slid sideways into the car operated by Dziadosz, he said. The Dziadosz vehicle was then struck by a northbound car operated by Carlos Elmo Parks, 65, 1304 Easton st., Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Dziadosz's body will be taken to the Manzell-Giunta Funeral Home in New Kensington for services and burial there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Winegardner, 106 Willoughby ave., suffered minor head injuries in a one-car mishap on Pennsylvania ave. near the Gladebridge Friday afternoon.

Winegardner was driving east on Pennsylvania ave., pulling a camper-trailer when, it appeared, the front end of the trailer hitch struck a railroad track, police said. The vehicle stopped abruptly and both occupants struck their heads on the windshield. They were treated at Warren General Hospital and released. Damage was set at $800.

Damage was set at $1,500 in a two-car collision on Rt. 59 at the Jakes Rocks road, Ernest C. Miller, 55, 18 Woodcrest dr., Warren, turned left off Rt. 59 in front of a car driven by Marce S. Swanson, 68, RD 5, Meadville, troopers said. The Swanson vehicle skidded 112 feet before striking the Miller car on the right rear side.

Mourners File Past RFK's Bier At 6,000 an Hour

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy lay in state all day Friday in a sealed casket before the main altar of St. Patrick's Cathedral and past his bier at the rate of 6,000 an hour filed his mourners, poignantly enwrapped in their grief.

Cathedral authorities said that because of the crush the doors of the church would remain open past the scheduled 10 p.m. deadline—all the night through if need be.

Kennedy's mother, his widow, his sister-in-law, Jacqueline Kennedy, were among those who knelt in prayer by the candle-flanked catafalque of the 42-year-old victim of an assassin.

On Saturday, the powerful, the wealthy from 50 nations around the world gather at St. Patrick's for funeral services, after which the body will be taken by train to Washington for interment at Arlington National Cemetery, where John F. Kennedy lies beneath an eternal flame.

But this was a day in which Robert Kennedy belonged to the humble.

These were the people who in life had reached for Kennedy's hand, torn exuberantly at his clothing, wildly cheered him on in his quest for the presidency.

Now they had come to bid farewell—little old ladies, miniskirted girls, vague and elderly men, young male hippies, wage earners in blue shirts, blacks, Puerto Ricans and whites.

They came to mourn, to weep, to run a finger or a hand solemnly and reflectively and ever so gently along the polished African mahogany wherein he rested.

They stood silently in lines that wound for block after block through midtown Manhattan. It took most nearly four hours in 90-degree heat before they even gained admission to the cathedral, which occupies a full block between Fifth and Madison Avenues and 50th and 51st Streets.

Grand Jury in Kennedy Slaying Hears Witnesses

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The County Grand Jury heard witnesses Friday in the Robert F. Kennedy assassination and then was to be asked to vote a murder indictment against a young Jordanian who sat heavily guarded in jail a mile away.

Twenty-one grand jurors—13 women and 8 men described by their foreman as "from all walks of life"—sat at desks in two tiers in a theaterlike room and, in secret, heard testimony from:

—Dr. Henry Cuneo, one of three neurosurgeons who operated to remove from Kennedy's brain a fragmented .22-caliber pistol bullet.

—Dr. Thomas Noguchi, chief county coroner who headed the autopsy and reported Thursday that the bullet entered the mastoid bone and penetrated the brain.

—Paul Ziffren, former California Democratic national committeeman, a technically needed identification witness to confirm that the victim was indeed Robert F. Kennedy, New York senator and aspirant to the presidency like his assassinated brother John F. before him.

The girl was identified by Pitchess as Kathy Fulmer, 19, of Los Angeles.

Humphrey Quits N.Y. Primary; McCarthy Plans Major Speech

(c) N.Y. Times News Service WASHINGTON — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is withdrawing from the New York Presidential primary campaign as part of a general suspension of political activity during mourning for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Humphrey told Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, his only remaining rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, Friday that he was cancelling campaign activity in all the states during the coming weeks.

The two men met privately for 35 minutes in Humphrey's office in the executive office building. The meeting was described by Humphrey aides as friendly and open. There was no indication that any agreement on the campaign was sought.

Other Humphrey sources said the vice president would observe a moratorium on campaigning nationwide at least through June 18, the date of the New York primary.

They said that his New York campaign office would stop all advertising, financial help and other activity on behalf of the 75 persons running for national convention delegate posts on Humphrey states in the state.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's office here said that the senator's campaign plans remained uncertain but that next week he would make his first campaign speech since Kennedy's death. He will spend Thursday night in New York at the annual dinner of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, a Quaker group.

Rep. Clarence D. Long, D-Md., urged Humphrey Friday to invite Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts to be his running mate on the Democratic ticket.

He said that having Robert Kennedy's younger brother as the vice presidential candidate would strengthen the unity of the party and "would be a splendid tribute to an eminent American family which has lost three sons in the service of our country."

Goddard Says Recreational Potential Here Unlimited

Citing tourism as the fastest growing facet of the American economy, Secretary of Forest and Waters Maurice Goddard told members and guests of the Kinzua Dam Vacation Bureau during a luncheon at the Three Flags yesterday at noon that Warren County's potential was truly unlimited. Last year's growth on a national scale had amounted to 9.6 per cent, the Secretary said.

After acknowledging that the purpose of his visit to Warren was to consider the possibility of the state adding an approximate 100 camping units to the facilities at Chapman Dam, Goddard stated flatly that first priority at the local state park was the installation of sewage treatment facilities and adequate water system.

He went on to say what he has said so many times in the past, that federal agencies using federal funds should be providing the recreational facilities so badly needed within the impact area of the dam and reservoir. This had been the understanding of the matter he had when he personally appeared at hearings in Washington on twelve occasions to support the building of the Kinzua Dam and have the U.S. Forest Service designated as the administering agency.

He professed surprise that no more than 200 camping sites are presently available in the dam area, stating that at least 2,000 were needed at present and that more would be needed in the future.

He cleared the ideal staff of the Allegheny National Forest of blame for delays, however, stating that their funds had been limited over the years since the dam was completed. Rather, he laid the blame on the Warren community for not having brought concerted pressure on Washington to provide the needed funds when the needs first became apparent.

Following the luncheon, an auto caravan moved from the Three Flags to the camping area at Chapman Dam. While accompanying the party on a short walk through the area where additional camp sites could be located.

Kennedy Slaying Could Affect Vietnam Talks

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam Friday labeled the murder of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy a "political assassination," arousing speculation that the New York senator's violent death may have an impact on Vietnam peace talks here.

Those talks are in recess until Wednesday. Ambassadors W. Averell Harriman and Cyrus R. Vance, the American negotiators, went to New York to attend the senator's funeral, and for the moment in Paris, the talks seem all but forgotten.

Among the many far-reaching consequences of the assassination may be that it will strengthen the determination of the North Vietnamese to hold out in Paris for their minimum demand before permitting any progress in the talks. That demand is complete cessation of bombardment of the North, free of any cost to Hanoi.

Council to Discuss Swimming Pool Financing Plan

Borough council will consider several ordinances at Monday's regular 7:30 p.m. session in chambers.

Among them is one providing for a five-year loan to finance the swimming pool and street opening.

Others provide for a Stop sign at Elm and Peach streets and removal of parking meter space at northeast corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Liberty street; one-way traffic on W. Fifth avenue between Hickory and Laurel streets; no parking zone on south side of Fifth avenue between the two streets and no parking zone on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue from Oak street to Canton.

Street paving bids will be opened and a resolution introduced authorizing a public hearing regarding acceptance of Melrose Pl. as a public street.

Senator Predicts Gun Control Defeat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Roman L. Hruska predicted Friday Congress will reject President Johnson's latest appeal for a ban on mail-order sales of rifles and shotguns. "You can't make a case for it," he said.

The Nebraska Republican led the fight against the proposal in Senate action on the crime-control bill and won by a 53-29 vote.

Among those voting with him were the Senate leaders of both parties, Mike Mansfield, D. Mont., and Everett M. Dirksen, R. Ill.

The vote came on an amendment offered by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D. Mass. As urged by Johnson, it would have banned interstate mail-order sales of rifles and shotguns and prohibited their sale to persons under 18 years of age.

Hruska said that even if mail-order sales were banned, it would not prevent persons from buying long guns in stores where they live.

And he maintained in an interview that the latest available FBI statistics show that misuse of firearms was involved in only 3 1/2 per cent of 3 1/4 million serious crimes in 1966.

Hruska said Johnson ignored the fact that under the 30-year-old 1938 Federal Firearms Act it is illegal to ship any firearm to any person prohibited by state or local law from buying it.

Also, he said, the law provides that if a state or local law requires the buyer to have a permit, the permit must be shown to the dealer or manufacturer before the firearm—whether a handgun, rifle or shotgun—can be shipped.

Hruska said the law has been violated on a wholesale scale because the federal government hasn't enforced it.

Pair Sentenced On Two Counts

Two inmates in the Warren County Jail, serving time on a burglary charge, on Friday were sentenced to serve one to five years in a state correctional institution for another burglary charge and a charge of prison breach.

William Buchanan and Peter Swartz will be transported to the Diagnostic and Classification Center at Western Penitentiary.

The new charges stemmed from an incident May 19 when, according to testimony by Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard E. Hegerty, a turnkey at the jail permitted the pair to leave their cells and go to the kitchen area.

Buchanan and Swartz, Hegerty stated, then left the premises through a side door, walked to Wiles Market at the corner of East street and Fifth avenue where they entered and made off with about $90 in cash.

The deputy further testified the defendants returned to the jail, hid the stolen money and were again locked up by the turnkey, David Allen Jeffords.

Hegerty said Jeffords received a call from borough police checking the whereabouts of Buchanan whom a witness had placed in the vicinity of Wiles Market. Jeffords replied Buchanan was asleep in his cell.

Hegerty was contacted by Jeffords, stopped at the local market and then proceeded to the county jail where he found Lt. Howard Hilstau of the borough police. The cell block was entered and, according to Hegerty, no signs of forcible breakout were found.

The witness was called in and a lineup ordered. Police testified the witness, a woman, immediately identified Buchanan and the clothing worn at the time of the robbery.

Other inmates of the jail told authorities that Jeffords had let Buchanan and Swartz out of their cells about 12:30 a.m.

In imposing sentence, Judge Alexander C. Flick Jr. advised the pair that the county jail sentence apparently was "a notable failure."

Jeffords too appeared for sentencing Friday. A student at Warren Campus-Edinboro State in return for a room and meals at the jail, served as turnkey from midnight until 8 a.m.

Imposition of sentence was suspended and Jeffords placed on probation for six months. In addition to being ordered to pay prosecution costs, the defendant was called "incredibly stupid" by the jurist, for permitting Buchanan and Swartz to leave their cells.

Daniel R. Weirich, RD 1, Clarendon, in court on four counts, was ordered to Camp Hill, a correctional institution. Weirich was charged with malicious mischief, burglary, three counts of larceny and corrupting the morals of a minor. The burglary and larceny charges were reduced to accessory after the fact.

Judge Flick told the defendant that at Camp Hill he would receive not only discipline but education and training. Officials at the institution determine when those committed are ready for parole.

John Anthony Mihalco, New Shaw House, Sheffield, charged with two counts of burglary, was sentenced to six months to one year in county jail and ordered to pay costs. He is also to make restitution in the amount of about $90 taken May 17 at New Shaw House and Sheffield Container Corp. Mihalco was arrested by Deputy Hegerty, when, according to police, evidence linked him to the breakins.

Burdette Westfall, RD4, Titusville, charged with receiving stolen goods, was sentenced to one to 12 months in county jail. The defendant, however, is currently serving the same sentence on the same charge in Crawford County jail and due for parole Monday. Judge Flick stipulated the Warren County sentence would run concurrently.

Paul Bernhard Anderson Jr., with driving during suspension and prowling and loitering, was ordered to pay costs and six months in jail. He will be paroled upon recommendation of L. E. Linder, chief probation officer.

A. L. Anderson, 309 S. State st., North Warren, charged with driving while under the influence, $125 and three days in jail.

Lyle Sampson, 314 Petroleum st., Titusville, who, according to testimony Friday, was one of three involved in the theft of a cash register containing about $25 from V & J Restaurant on Pennsylvania avenue E, last month, had imposition of sentence suspended and was ordered to Warren State Hospital for 90-day observation.

The two-year-old daughter of Linda and Jim Simonsen, both Warren area natives, is a patient at North Passavant Hospital in Pittsburgh, where she is being treated after being severely bitten by a dog in that city.

Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Art Borden of Sheffield and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simonsen of Clarendon.

Trio Arrested; Disposition Pending

Disposition is pending following the arrest at 3:35 a.m. Friday of three persons by borough police.

Apprehended, according to police were Edward J. Abplanalp, 19, 109 Chapman rd., Warren; a 17-year-old girl from Warren and a 15-year-old boy, also local.

The trio, police said were found intoxicated in a parked car on Jefferson street with beer in their possession.

Your Horoscope By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars. FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1968

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)—Some plans may be changed whether you like it or not. So? Be composed and patient, for you may well profit by the change. Control emotions, aggressiveness.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)—Venus now stimulates initiative, creativity; also helps you handle tedious tasks in a brighter spirit. Use your talents astutely.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)—The joyous mood will be just as important in everyday work as it is in pleasures, special interests—more so. Steer your course without fretting or rushing.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)—If you were sensibly careful in the early part of the week, you will be pleased at most turns of events this weekend. Put a little extra grit and gumption into this day's endeavors.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)—A pound of fury with only an ounce of control could send this day clear off course. No excuses to yourself. You've a good head, use it — and help others stay on course, too.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)—With little planetary help, your day will require considerable thinking, reviewing, then deliberate action and follow-through tactics for full success.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)—You may have a tendency now toward discontent, irritability with slow returns or with persons who do not understand you. Recognize this possibility and determine to control such feelings.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)—Too often you may think certain "little things" do not matter as long as they are taken care of "later." This may be day's big mistake. Control a present tendency toward lethargy.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)—You may have a complex program. Tackle it with unobtrusive but solid determination, however. Back what you should stoutly, but avoid being sharp with others.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—Polish up, trim where it is pertinent to do so, and be systematic in all things. A grand day for a spirited, enterprising Capricornian.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Of course you need cooperation, but a certain amount of competition will spur you on. Accept challenges enthusiastically.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—Do not allow a desire for pleasure and comfort cause you to neglect duties important to your future. Be tactful in making requests, not demanding.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with talents and characteristics suited to a wide variety of occupations. You intuitively know the right move at the crucial moment, can say much in terse, concise speech, pointed directly at the heart of a matter. You are usually busy going forward. Today's child seldom has to be told to do his work. He is anxious to learn, to do what is right. Mathematics, literature, music and outdoor activities are second nature here. You like to do an A-1 job, and whatever the hours required, will produce it — and expect the same from others.

How to Keep Well By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

(c) 1968 By The Chicago Tribune

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

NEW DISEASE MIMICS TB

A disease similar to tuberculosis is spreading over the upper central states and Texas. It is a pulmonary condition caused by photochromogenic mycobacteria (M. kansasii), and may be fatal. Dr. Karl H. Pfuetze has seen more than 300 cases at the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis sanitarium, Hinsdale, Ill.

Special tests must be done to distinguish it from the TB germ because the causative organisms look alike under the microscope. The main difference is that mycobacteria are not contagious and no one seems to know how they invade the body.

M. kansasii have not been isolated from soil or found in domestic and wild animals. Men are more susceptible than women, and especially the middle aged and elderly. While true tuberculosis tends to occur among persons of poor socioeconomic circumstances, mycobacteria usually develop among the middle classes.

The infection settles in the lungs and is indistinguishable from that of true tuberculosis. The X-rays are identical except that M. kansasii produce larger cavities. In far-advanced cases, high fever, night sweats, a productive cough, weight loss, and fatigue occur. Tuberculin skin tests demonstrate a positive reaction in both conditions.

Dr. Pfuetze stresses the importance of hospitalization combined with intense and prolonged therapy with isoniazid, streptomycin, and ethambutol. Severe cases require surgical removal of the diseased area. The outcome is good provided the victim cooperates and the disease is not far advanced. The majority are well enough to return home after five to seven months in an institution.

Is this tuberculosis or a near relative of tuberculosis? Time will tell, but for the present, Dr. Pfuetze believes that these are different diseases.

TOMORROW: Olympic Cookout.

PRURITUS FROM FOOD

H. N. writes: Would 5 or 6 glasses of milk and several servings of ice cream with chocolate in the daily diet of an adult cause constipation and a constant itching in the buttocks and rectum?

REPLY

This is possible, especially if you are sensitive to chocolate or milk. Omit milk, ice cream, and chocolate for one week. If the itching stops, add one food at a time until the symptoms return. Should pruritus persist, something other than milk and chocolate is responsible.

CAUSES OF AGING SKIN

S. K. B. writes: What causes the skin to deteriorate? Are all old people affected or do some escape?

REPLY

There are many causes for aging skin, including dietary deficiencies, poor health, endocrine and metabolic disorders, and overexposure to sun or wintry winds. Our leaflet on the aging skin offers more information on the causes. It can be obtained by sending stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.

ABRUPT STOP IN SMOKING

A reader writes: Can a person who has smoked a pack of cigarets daily for 30 years stop abruptly with no bad effects?

REPLY

Yes, and many have. The desire to smoke may linger for a long period of time.

DEAD-TOOTH ABSCESS

H. A. writes: Can a dead tooth affect the health?

REPLY

Yes, because abscesses are likely to develop at the roots of such teeth.

SWEETS IN ARTHRITIS

J. D. writes: Is it true that people suffering from arthritis should not eat sweets?

REPLY

This is not true unless the arthritic is obese and needs to reduce to lessen the strain on the weight-bearing joints.

Communications Act

WASHINGTON—Most people have forgotten it, but former Sen. Clarence Dill of Washington is the chief author of the 1934 Communications Act regulating the thousands of TV and radio programs which the American public hears and sees daily.

"When we wrote the act," said Sen. Dill, "Senator White of Maine and I considered whether we should put a ceiling on profits. After all, the act provided for the use of air channels belonging to the public and the public had a right to be paid for them out of profits."

"However, we decided there wouldn't be any profits. That's why there is no requirement in the law for any rental or benefit to the public."

"If we had it to do over again, the law would have been different," said former Sen. Dill, now retired and living in Spokane.

His words are significant in view of the stinging report issued by two members of the Federal Communications Commission, Kenneth Cox and Nicholas Johnson, pointing to the profits of the TV-radio industry.

Their survey, which was confined to Oklahoma, showed both tremendous profits and scanty public service. "The television industry averages about 100 per cent return on depreciated tangible investment and about 40 per cent on gross revenues," the two commissioners reported.

They found that only one of ten stations with around $16,000,000 gross devotes as much as two hours a week to local public affairs programs.

"There is not in the entire state a single regularly scheduled prime time program devoted to presentation, analysis, or discussion of controversial issues of public importance in the state or in the community," reported Commissioners Cox and Johnson.

Yet the FCC renewed their licenses almost automatically.

Cox and Johnson could have gone further if they had scrutinized the national TV-radio scene. If so, they would have discovered that network profits were among the highest in the nation. For the first half of 1967 the three networks racked up a total profit of $718,700,000 with CBS increasing its take by $55,436,800.

CBS has made so much money in recent years that it has difficulty investing its profits and has branched out into baseball, theatrics, educational book publishing and even guitar manufacturing. Among other things, it owns the New York Yankees and "My Fair Lady."

All this presents a problem for President Johnson. He has an FCC commissioner to appoint this month. The FCC has been criticized in the past for enhancing Ladybird's stations in Texas. So the country will be watching to see whether LBJ appoints a forthright commissioner who watches the public interest or another patsy who promotes private profits.

Now that the Senate has hung so many Christmas tree amendments on the anti-crime bill, there's only one real section of the bill worth saving. This is the section providing for an "institute of criminal justice," pioneered by young Rep. James Scheuer of the Bronx.

Despite the original opposition of J. Edgar Hoover and Rep. John Rooney of Brooklyn, Scheuer finally sold some of his Republican colleagues on the bill and got it inserted in the crime bill. Even Ramsey Clark, the Attorney General, shied away from the institute of crime justice in deference to J. Edgar Hoover.

Essentially the institute would apply modern science to crime detection and crime prevention.

Most people don't realize it, but police departments and the FBI do not use such modern techniques as voice prints and dry blood prints. Nor have most of them perfected hair prints, though the FBI used this technique in identifying James Earl Ray, the assassin of Martin Luther King.

But by using such modern techniques, police departments could get away from their present reliance on pre-trial confessions. This is what the Supreme Court has restricted as an invasion of constitutional rights.

Rep. Scheuer also proposes that the institute of criminal justice study the problems of crime prevention and apprehension.

"Only 24 per cent of those who commit serious crimes are apprehended," says Scheuer. "The problem is not so much convictions but first prevention, second apprehension."

"One very easy means of preventing crime is locking automobiles. Today there are 600,000 auto thefts a year, and one-half of the cars are stolen because keys were left in the lock. There are other means of preventing car thefts, such as locking the gear shift, locking the wheels. If these were employed, car thefts could be cut from 600,000 to 100,000."

Rep. Scheuer has also proposed such modern techniques as a computer assignment of police cars.

"We spend millions every year in researching causes of muscular dystrophy, epilepsy and heart disease," says Scheuer. "Why not spend a few million in researching the causes of the disease of crime? So far we have spent almost nothing on this disease, its prevention, its cure or its means of apprehension."

Scheuer has written a book, "To Walk the Streets Safely," to be published by Doubleday shortly.

The Reader Speaks

June 6, 1968

Dear Sir:

The tragic death of Senator Robert Kennedy in Los Angeles inevitably must lead every citizen to search for the causes of this terrible occurrence and attempt to assess the degree of responsibility which each of us must bear.

The answer is clear.

During the last few years, under the pressure of revolutionary social changes, the spirit of violence and intemperance has grown in the land, tending to undermine our regard for law and order and our social institutions, and violence inevitably leads to still more violence. Everyone who has expressed extreme or inflammatory opinions about Senator Kennedy or any of our other leaders, or about any minority group, or who, in response to real or imagined wrongs, has taken the law into his own hands and resorted to acts of violence, has helped to create an atmosphere of hate, divisiveness and unrest, and it is in this kind of an atmosphere that to warped and disturbed minds violence will appear to be an appropriate solution to any and all problems. Furthermore, each of us, who through silence gives tacit acquiescence to such opinions, must bear a share of the responsibility for this tragedy. The evidence is clear we have permitted, either through our overt actions or through our silence, the country to become deeply divided, and an atmosphere of growing hate and violence to be created.

Our responsibility, however, goes far deeper. Because we have largely ignored the pressing social problems which beset our nation—urban blight, poverty, the ghettos in the cities, the lack of equal opportunity for all of our citizens—and because we have failed to make the kind of national commitment necessary to solve these problems, we have created a society where large segments of our population, bereft of all hope, are ruled by hate and fear, where violence is the norm, where law and order are largely ignored. A Presidential Commission, although helpful, will not provide a solution, nor will a stricter gun control law. Not until we come to grips with the fundamental problems of our social order and make a commitment as a nation to rid our land of these abuses and build a better society will we be able to prevent future tragedies like that of Los Angeles.

It is to be hoped that the death of Senator Kennedy will serve to galvanize the country into taking corrective action to cure our social ills. The time is short, but let us make a beginning. If we do, then perhaps his death will have served some purpose; if we fail to take action now, then the tragedy at Los Angeles will be merely one more in a continuing series of senseless acts of violence.

This is our choice, and this our ultimate responsibility.

Giant Insane Asylum

WASHINGTON—To the rest of the world the United States must look like a giant insane asylum where the inmates have taken over. The guards are gone, the doors are open and everyone thinks the other person is sick.

Except for the charity wards where the people are all shoved together on top of each other, the rest of the asylum couldn't look prettier. The buildings are all new and shiny, the equipment is the most modern in the world, the grounds are green and decorated with flowers. To look at it from the outside, you would think it is the ideal spot on the globe.

But inside, the patients are running amuck and no one seems to know what to do about it. Every time a doctor is called in to suggest a remedy for the chaos, the residents of the hospital shout him down. Besides, they believe anyone who is trying to come up with new cures for their sickness must be crazy himself.

The United States is a very special type of insane asylum in that all the inmates are permitted to have guns. These guns are sold right in the hospital or can be ordered by mail because when the hospital was built in 1775 the founders wrote it into the rules. Every time someone wants to change the rules, the gun-loving inmates cry that they only want the guns to kill animals during their recreation periods.

The people who live on the Hill and represent the inmates are afraid to do anything to offend the armed inmates, so they ignore the problem until there's a killing in the hospital, at which time they all express horror that the inmates should be allowed to walk around with guns.

Then they forget about it until the next tragedy comes along.

Despite its beauty and size there have been many injustices committed in the asylum against the patients. For 100 years, the black patients were kept in isolation wards and only permitted out to scrub the floors. They got no treatment from the white doctors until recently when they became violent and insisted that if they were patients in the asylum they wanted the same rights as the other inmates.

The administrators of the asylum have belatedly sought to improve the lot of the black patients, but there has been a reluctance amongst the other inmates to pay the bill, particularly since the asylum is supporting so many other insane asylums around the world.

Up until recently the hospital was a model for all other hospitals. But in the '60s people everywhere have been watching it with horror and despair.

The more affluent the hospital becomes the sicker the patients behave. The remedies prescribed for the illnesses are always given too little and too late. And as in all insane asylums, every person thinks the other patient is the one who should get the treatment.

Nobody knows how many more doctors the patients will shoot, nor how long the asylum will survive before the inmates destroy it once and for all.

Market Bubbles To Large Gain

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market Friday bubbled to another large gain, and the Federal Reserve Board stepped in to put the lid on the boiling stock prices.

The day's volume of 17.32 million shares was the sixth largest in history, and it boosted the week's total to a record 82,063,400 shares. This topped the previous weekly peak of 78,476,000 shares for the week ended April 6.

After the close the "Fed" announced it had raised the margin requirements for stock purchases to 80 per cent from the current 70 per cent, in effect boosting the "down payment" stocks to 80 per cent of the purchase price.

At the same time, the federal agency boosted the margin requirements for loans on convertible securities to 60 per cent from the current 50 per cent.

It was all part of an effort to cool down a very hot market and included the decision by the various stock exchanges to have the market holidays for the next three Wednesdays and July 5 to allow brokerage houses to catch up with mountains of paper work which have swamped them because of heavy trading.

The day's volume compared with 16.13 million Thursday. It ranked just under the 17.73 million shares April 1 in this year's string of record-breaking trading days.

The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 4.75 to 914.88, still leaving this popular indicator well below its highs for the year and far below its historic peak of around 955 made in early 1966.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 3.6 to 342.1, its latest in a series of new highs for the year, with industrials up 2.9 and rails up 4.8, both to new highs for the year, and utilities up .2.

The New York Stock Exchange index of some 1,200 stocks made a historic high as it rose 36 cents to $57.11, topping Thursday's mark.

The day was marked by a very large number of blocks above 10,000 shares, reflecting "big money" entering the market, either from mutual funds and other large aggregations of capital, or from important private investors.

Of 1,523 issues traded, 827 advanced and 451 declined. New highs for the year totaled 272 and new lows 9.

Eleven of the 15 most-active stocks advanced, 2 declined and 2 were unchanged.

Bunker-Ramo (new) was again the most-active stock, up 1% at 20 7/8 on 377,800 shares.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 9.65 million shares compared with 8.01 million Thursday.

Wanderings

by Marion Honhart

I HARDLY DARE WRITE THIS, the last time I did, it rained and rained and rained The beauties of the woodland drive I spoke about on that Saturday turned into bogs of mud However Once again the wooded hills surrounding Camp Birdsall Edey with its view of the Allegheny is beckoning (in case you want to drive out that way and see this beauty spot snuggled in the hills). Though this is the Girl Scout Camp, ALL girls from the ages of 9 to 17, or who will be in the 4th to 12th grades this fall, have been invited to spend an enjoyable two weeks from July 21st to August 2nd — Along with the hiking, archery, folk dancing, bicycling, swimming (in a sparkling pool on the grounds), simply delicious food prepared by Mrs. Ethel Schreckengost "Schreck" to her friends this is also a quiet retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. It gives even the very young a chance to think long thoughts and dream a little! For more information call the Warren Girl Scout Field Office at 723-4990.

FOUR TABLES OF BRIDGE, the Howell System, were in play on Thursday afternoon at the Woman's Club. Conaway and Mrs. Carl Hultberg 20.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a boy 14, interested in motor-bikes and girls. My main problem is my mother. She refuses to buy me a pair of pants that fit right. I realize I am still growing, but does that mean everything has to be two sizes too big? A kid has to look decent even if he is growing, doesn't he?

Yesterday Mom bought me two pairs of pants. They are baggy in the seat and loose around the legs. I look like some kind of clown. When I told Mom the pants were the wrong size she gave her stock answer, "You'll grow. Next year they'll be perfect." I asked her to take them back because I'd rather wear my old ones. She said, "I can't, they were on sale."

I have tried everything to get Mom to see my side of it—a hunger strike and letting my hair grow in protest. (When it got 10 inches long the school complained and I had to cut it some.)

Do you have an answer to my problem?—GARDEN CITY

DEAR GARD: I assume by now you have started to eat and that your hair is off your shoulders. If so, here's a word to your mother:

A 14-year-old boy should be able to pick out his own pants. I hope from now on you'll allow him to do it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Dad died seven months ago. Now that Mother is alone she feels that if my husband, Vic, and I are invited anywhere or if we have another couple in she should be included. There are many things five people can't do. Then of course some folks object to an extra person being brought along to dinner.

Yesterday Vic snapped at me for the first time I can remember. I asked him to drive over and get Mother. (She was going to play my bridge hand with me.)

Mother is lonely and I hate to hurt her feelings, but I'm afraid my marriage will suffer if I don't put an end to all this togetherness.

This morning Mother called to plan OUR vacation. What can I do?—S.O.S. IN DES MOINES

DEAR S.O.S.: You can decide right now to grow up and be independent. This means you should invite your mother to your home when she can be a fourth at bridge, not a fifth. This means you should stop dragging her to the homes of friends. Your friends know your mother and if they want her they will invite her. This also means it's time you put your husband first in your life. Tell your mother that you and Vic are going to have a second honeymoon and ask what she would like to do for a vacation on her own this summer.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My father has a widowed sister who lives about 40 miles from here. Aunt Liz comes to town twice a week. We used to have a spare bedroom but Mom made it into a work room for my Dad so Aunt Liz has been sleeping on the sofa.

We got a new sofa a couple weeks ago and Mom doesn't want Aunt Liz to sleep on it. Aunt Liz says her weight (180) is not nearly as much as the weight of three people-sitting. Last night thing. He sides with Aunt Liz. What are the facts?—FAMILY FIGHT

DEAR FAM: If your mother doesn't want anybody to sleep on the new couch that should settle it. Your dad ought to buy an army cot or a folding bed for Aunt Liz—and pass the peace pipe already.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pre-School Child Study Group Has Annual Banquet

On Monday, June 3, the Pre-School Child Study Group held their annual banquet at the Driftwood in Jamestown. Miss Marion Sleeman, executive director of the Warren County Board of Assistance, was guest speaker.

Miss Sleeman's talk concerned public assistance and the job of a caseworker. She explained what public assistance actually is, who is eligible for it, and the services and medical assistance available. Miss Sleeman also described the assistance applications, the way payments are made, and how assistance is administered. The club presented their guest speaker with a check that will send five girls to YWCA Day Camp.

Following the talk the president, Mrs. Swartz, conducted a short business meeting, thanking all members for their help on the group's various projects this year. Then the retiring president turned the meeting over to her successor, Mrs. Gary Wareham, who introduced her fellow officers for next year: Mrs. James Bevevino, vice-president; Mrs. Dennis Paterson, secretary; and Mrs. James Eldridge, treasurer.

Individual candle and flower arrangements, used as part of the appointments, were made by the retiring officers, Mrs. Wilbur Swartz, Mrs. David Hendrickson, Mrs. Willard Foley, and Mrs. Leonard Conticello. The last event for the group this season will be a picnic for members and their children at Crescent Park on Wednesday, June 19. Each mother is requested to bring sandwiches for herself and her children.

"Let's talk dry cleaning"

By HOWARD WATERFIELD

SUMMER WHITES and light colors show up dirt, graying and stains more readily than darker clothing. They need more frequent cleaning to look fresh and crisp.

Spots and stains are especially evident on light colors.

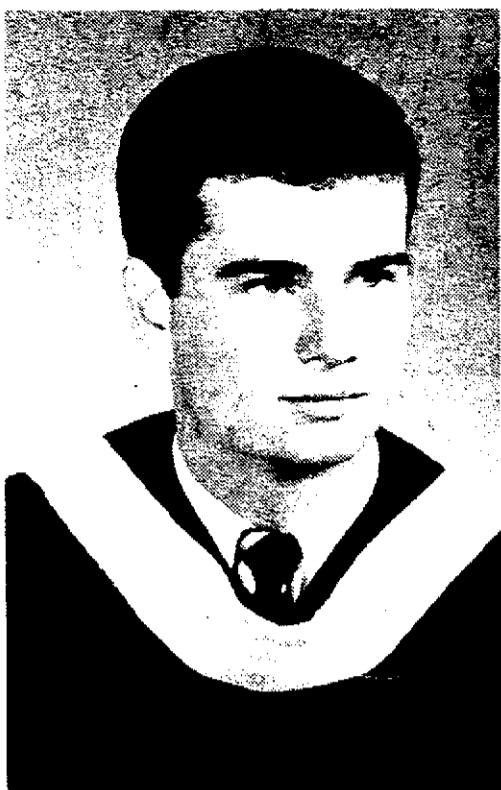

Here we want to say a friendly word of warning about "home spotting." While some spots may yield to home treatment successfully, without damage to the fabric, in most cases there is a definite risk. Unless you thoroughly understand the "fabric chemistry" of your garment and the chemical content of the spot or stain, it is dangerous to attempt to remove it yourself. The result could be discoloration or permanent staining — and a ruined garment.

Some stains are so stubborn or difficult to remove that they challenge even the best efforts of dry cleaning experts. This is particularly true when stains have been left in too long. So don't gamble with inexpert "do-it-yourself" methods. See your dry cleaner promptly!

Speaking of promptness... you can be sure of fast as well as expert service when you bring us your clothing to be cleaned. Prompt attention is our way of doing business!

Hint From Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

We like to get those tourist stickers from the different towns we visit during our vacation.

Instead of sticking them on the car windows where they obstruct the view, we bring them home and put them on the refrigerator door.

Quite decorative and a conversation piece. We also enjoy revisiting those places in our "mind's eye" everytime we see the stickers.

FOR ROBERT KENNEDY

A Memorial Mass will be said at 5 p.m. tomorrow at Holy Redeemer Church. The Mass will be offered in memory of Senator Robert F. Kennedy.

They spent part of the morning at the Erie County Historical Society, then ate lunch at the Buffalo zoo. Next they traveled by bus to Niagara Falls, where they visited the Aquarium and the Falls. So that they could see as much of the Falls as possible in a short time, the Scouts also rode the Viewmobile.

When they finally got back to the bus, they discovered that it had a dead battery, and the travellers were held up for nearly an hour and a half. While waiting, they had dinner at a nearby restaurant. It was nearly 11 p.m. before the tired but happy troop made it home.

Selected Viewing

Saturday, 8 p.m. -- THE TOY THAT GREW UP presents the second in a series of silent film features, "Dancing Mothers." This 1927 epic stars the "R Girl," Clara Bow -- the symbol of the flaming flapper of the jazz-age 1920's.

Sunday, 10 p.m. -- SUNDAY SYMPHONY presents the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of the brilliant young conductor, Zubin Mehta. Tonight, the Orchestra plays selections from the works of Haydn and Strauss.

Monday, 8 p.m. -- THIRTY YEARS OF RAIN is a documentary produced by Penn State's Department of Public Information. It tours the Keystone State to show the defacement done by strip mining and then focuses on research being done at the University to help the situation.

Tuesday, 9 p.m. -- ADVENTURE, the exciting series produced by the British Broadcasting Corporation, takes viewers to the "Cave of Assassins" -- the 11th century home of the murdering "Hashish Eaters" in the mountains around the Caspian Sea, found undisturbed after 900 years.

Wednesday, 9 p.m. -- BLACK JOURNAL, a new monthly series about the Negro in 20th century America, premieres tonight with a variety of features. Included are a look at the militant Black Panther Party, a look at the attitudes of graduating Negro seniors at Harvard, Morehouse, and Spellman Colleges, and a satire featuring Negro comic Godfrey Cambridge.

Thursday, 9:30 p.m. -- THE HOTDOG SALESMAN is an original play written by award-winning WPSX-TV writer-producer Louis Florimonte. Through a unique combination of the real and not-quite-real, of comedy and tragedy, it examines the place of beauty in the world which we will have built for ourselves -- an indifferent world that continues despite our best efforts to change it for good or evil.

Friday, 10 p.m. -- NET PLAYHOUSE tonight presents a tale about all of us, about "Everyman." This is a famous medieval morality play about man's journey through life with Death attending his every step. Here the characters are presented in modern guise with a contemporary jazz score for background.

You Can Worry About Getting a Job Better... in Pennsylvania!!

Because in Pennsylvania, you'll have more kinds of jobs to worry about getting. Daytime jobs, night-time jobs, part-time jobs, full-time jobs, overtime jobs—you name it. And Pennsylvania has more and more jobs in more and more fields available every day.

And when you aren't worrying, you can enjoy Pennsylvania's other attractions. Shops (for shopping), mountains (for climbing), cities (for living), resorts (for lazing). And more—there are as many fun things to do in Pennsylvania as there are jobs.

In fact, you might be too busy having fun to worry about working.

RAYMOND P. SHAFER, Governor

One of a series sponsored by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association and presented as a public service as part of this newspaper's participation in the program of '100,000 Pennsylvanians' for the Promotion of Economic Growth, a non-partisan, non-profit, privately financed citizens' group.

If you think staying in school is tough, listen to someone who quit.

"You hear it a million times.
'You can't get a good job without a good education.'
But you don't realize how true that is until you make the rounds. I did. 8 hours a day.
5 days a week. For 6 lousy months. Without an education, they don't even want to talk to you. Lucky for me, there are all sorts of programs to help kids get more training. I got on one, an on-the-job deal. I had to finish high school first by going nights, because the courses in the program are college courses. And, what with working days, it wasn't easy. But it's better than making peanuts all the rest of your life."

JACK WOLK

Based on an interview taped April 6, 1967

To get a good job, you need a good education. So if you're in school, stay there. If you've quit, find out how to get more training.
See your State Employment Service or Youth Opportunity Center.
